Foreword

If you're a sophomore, a junior,
or a senior . . .
The spirit is still the same . . .
encouraging teams . . .
being proud of school . . .
helping fellow-classmates . . .
pushing one's self to study . . .
getting involved in school activities . . .
showing respect for faculty and campus . . .

Miss Frances Cook

For her work as senior class sponser . . .
advising class activities . . .
scheduling and coordinating prom . . .
helping with graduation . . .
As coach of all girl's sports . . .
urging her teams on to victory . . .
winning or losing-ready to come back and try again . . .
For this, we the Senior Class of 1968 say thanks, as we dedicate this volume of the Cronus to

MISS FRANCES COOK

Year in, Year out

ALMA MATER

Here's to our dear old West High,
Of which we are so proud.
With victory our motto,
Our voices we raise loud.
Our banner raised in Titan praise,
Our name we shall uphold;
So here's to dear old West High,
And her green, her white and gold.
Years after we have parted
Our memories will hold;
Those glorious days at West High,
And her green, her white and gold.

FIGHT SONG

We're gonna win this game
there's no doubt about it,
We're behind you
ready to shout it,
Come on team
we know you're strong,
So now victory is our song!

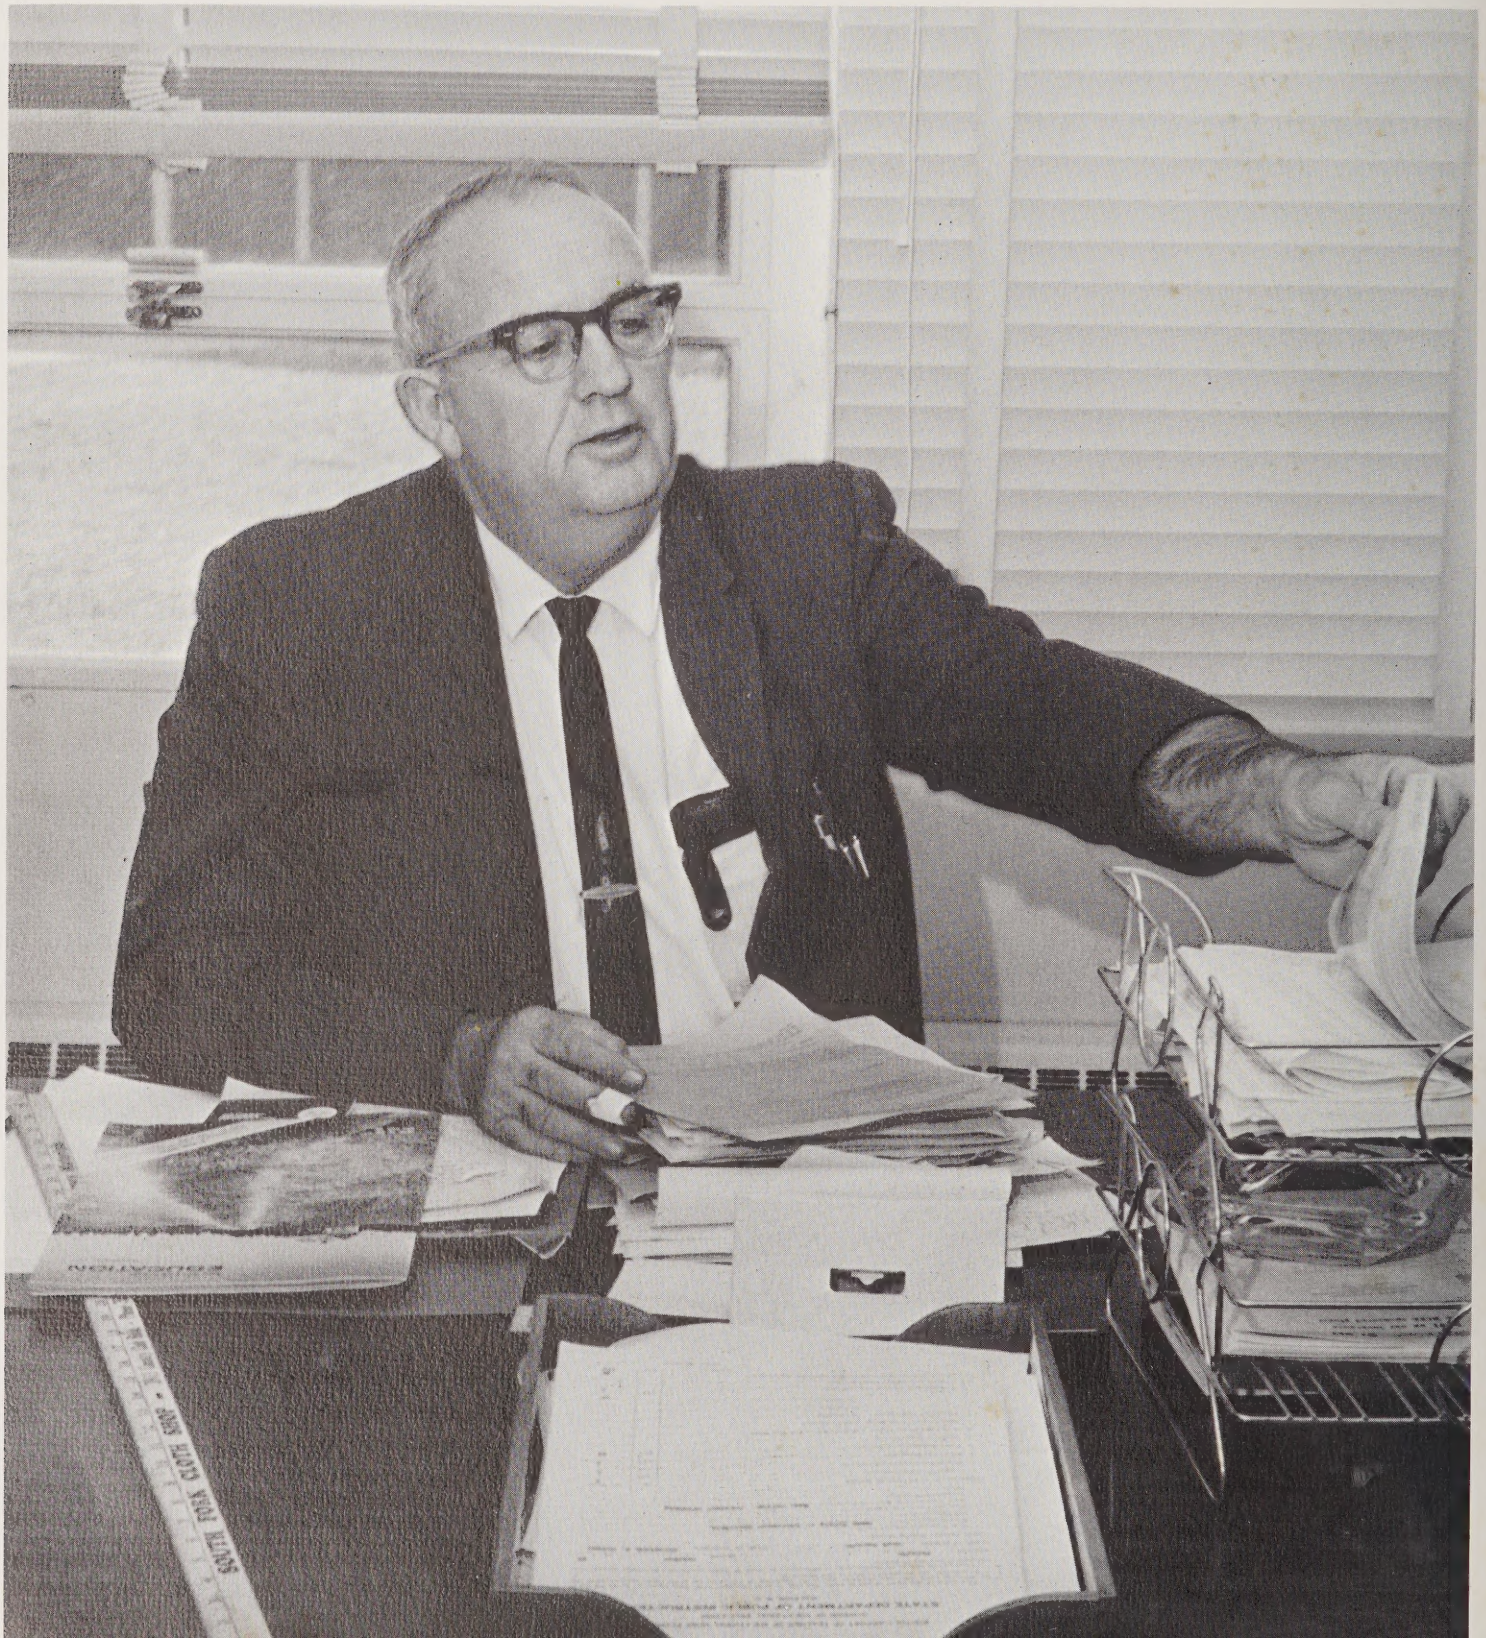
Spirit of '68

In Faculty

Administration leads search for knowledge

Much hard work, time and patience go with the responsibility of a principal. Mr. Harold Simpson (U.N.C.-C.H., M. A., A. B.) has shown that he can fill his position with dignity, capability and fairness. All of West's students extend a generous thanks to Mr. Simpson for his willingness and understanding.

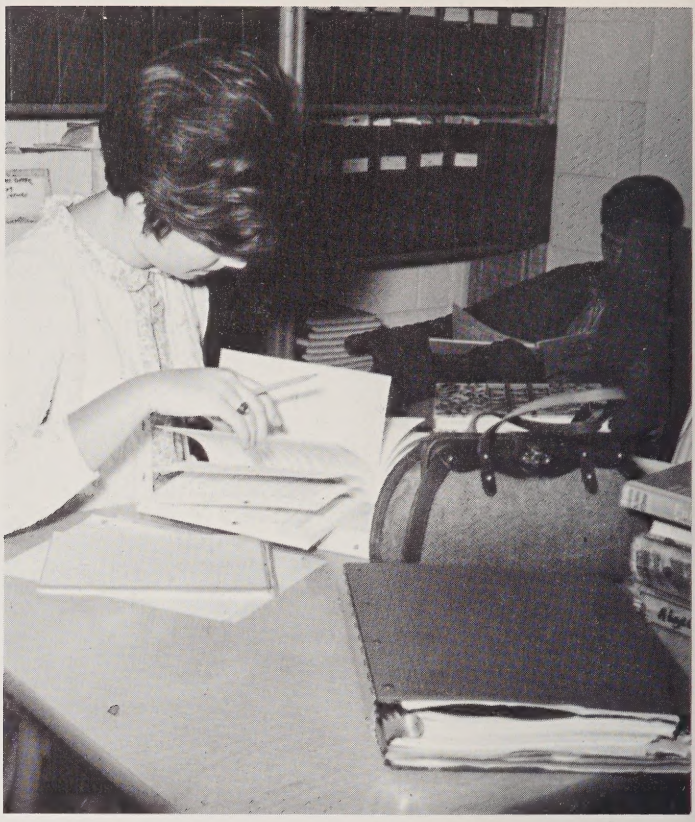


Assistants are absolutely essential

Mrs. Irene Harper's job is a varied one. As school secretary, Mrs. Harper (Ideal Business College) has appeals for help from everyone, including Mr. Simpson.

One of the most familiar faces around West is that of Mr. Jerry Peoples (N.C. State, Appalachian, U.N.C.-G.,B.S.,M.E.). In addition to his many duties as assistant principal, Mr. Peoples has classes in family living and math and he sponsors the Key Club.

Guided Preparation



Leigh McDowell and Gary Long read up on the colleges of their choice in the guidance office.

Everyone who goes to her for help receives a warm welcome from Miss Rosalie Adams (Catawba, Appalachian, B.S.,M.A.). In addition to being guidance counselor, Miss Adams sponsors the Student Council this year.

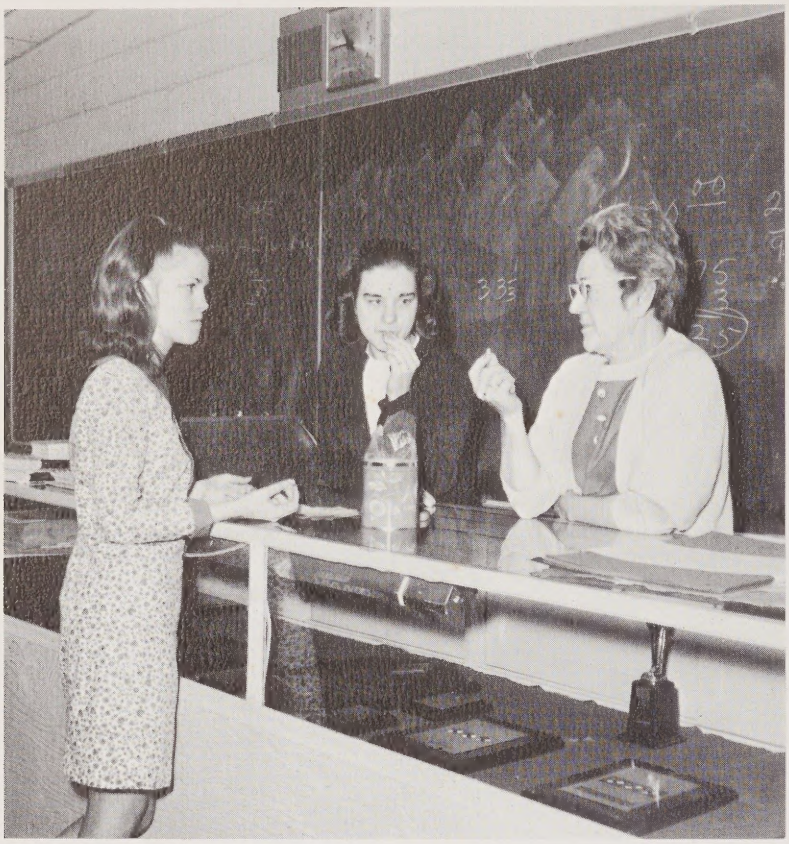
Mrs. Mildred Furches is the person to consult when in need of information from the guidance department. Mrs. Furches acts as secretary to Miss Adams and handles all reading materials in the guidance office.

Having a car that is in good running condition is one aid to the driver-training teaching of Mr. Harold Miller (Appalachian, U.N.C.- C.H., Catawba, B.S.,M.A.) and Mr. Worth Seats (Catawba, B.S.). Mr. Seats is assistant J.V. basketball coach.

There's much to learn - - the car and library

Performing the duties of librarian is the job of Mrs. Mary Vance. Mrs. Vance (U.N.C.-G.,A.B.,M.E.) also sponsors the Library Club.

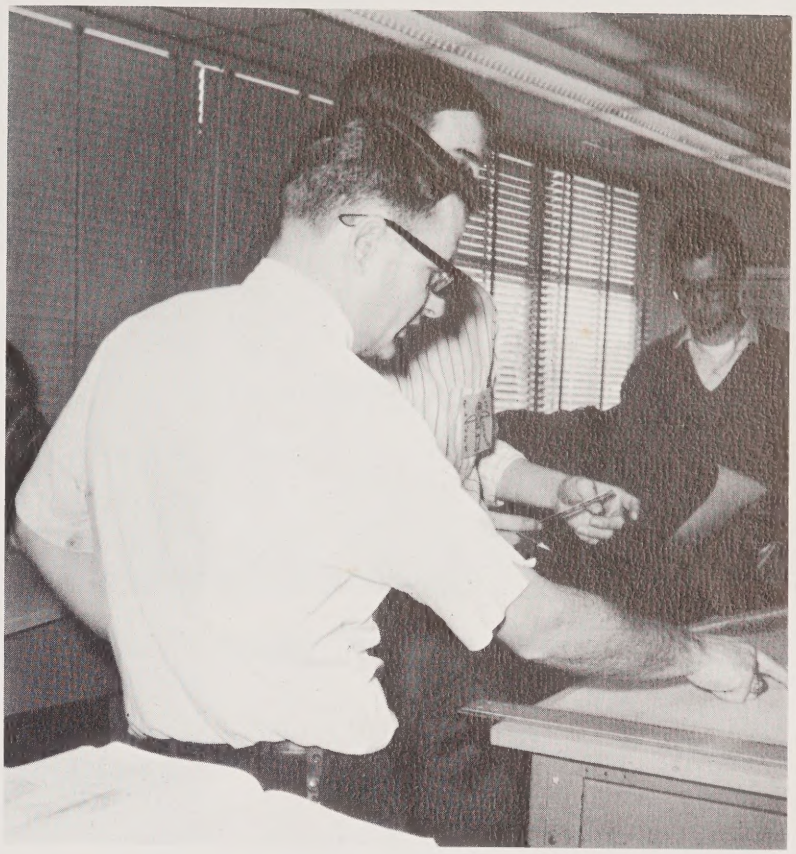
D. E. and I. C. T. expand vocational desires



Mrs. Juanita Bowser's assignment is to help prepare students for entering the business world. Mrs. Bowser (Brenau, A.B.) teaches Distributive Education and sponsors the D.E. Club.

Working at jobs outside the school is part of the training given to students in Industrial Cooperative Training taught by Mr. Charles Giles (Wake Forest, George Peabody, B.A.,M.A.). He also sponsors the V.I.C.A. Club.

Quality goods from skilled hands



One of the teachers new to West this year is Mr. Edward Sugg. Mr. Sugg (N.C. State, B.S.) teaches industrial arts.

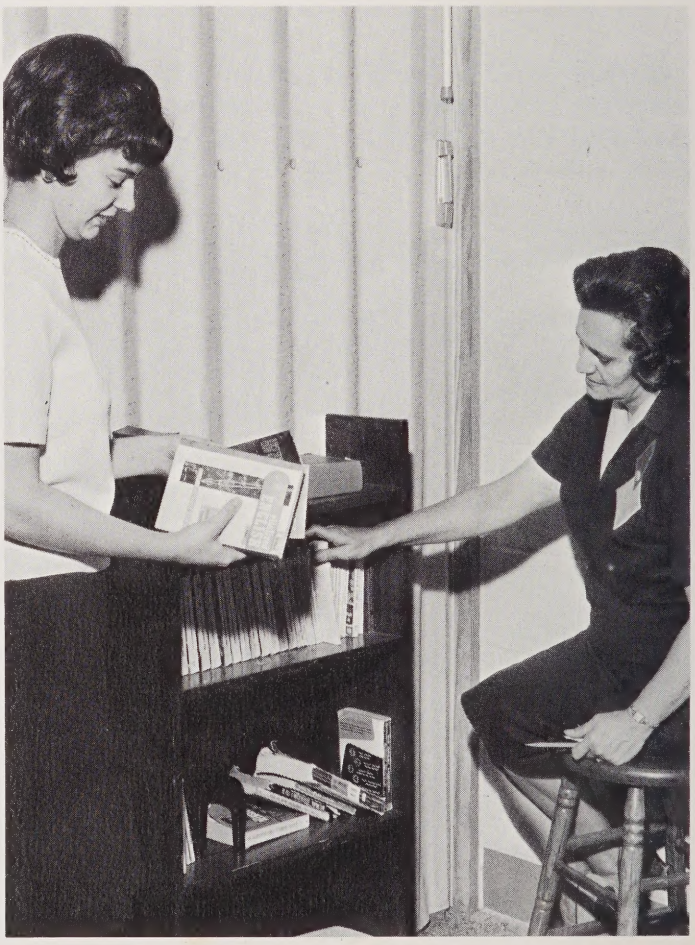
From the drawing board to the shop

The shop is the domain of Mr. Thomas Pratt (V.P.I.,B.S.). In addition to agriculture, Mr. Pratt teaches shop and sponsors the Future Farmers of America Club. He also coaches the F.F.A. basketball team.

Miss Ruth Farthing and Mrs. Margaret King have the joint responsibility of introducing to sophomores their first phase of high school English.

Miss Farthing (Appalachian, B.S.) sponsors the Quill and Scroll and Mrs. King (U.N.C.-G.,A.B.) is D.A.R. Good Citizen sponsor.

Julius Caesar,



Mrs. Jane Everhart and Mrs. Juanita Clarke often discuss materials to be used in their junior English classes. Mrs. Clarke (Meredith College, A.B.) teaches journalism and devotes much time to sponsoring the newspaper and the yearbook. Mrs. Everhart (U. N. C.-C. H., B. A.) sponsors the j. v. and the varsity cheerleaders.

Mrs. Maxine Mast (High Point College, A.B.) shares with Mr. James Anderson (Catawba, Appalachian, A.B., M.A.) the task of offering a final taste of high school English to seniors.

Huckleberry Finn and Macbeth

What's this? Reading circle—junior style.

And no, you may NOT quote.

History: present + past = future

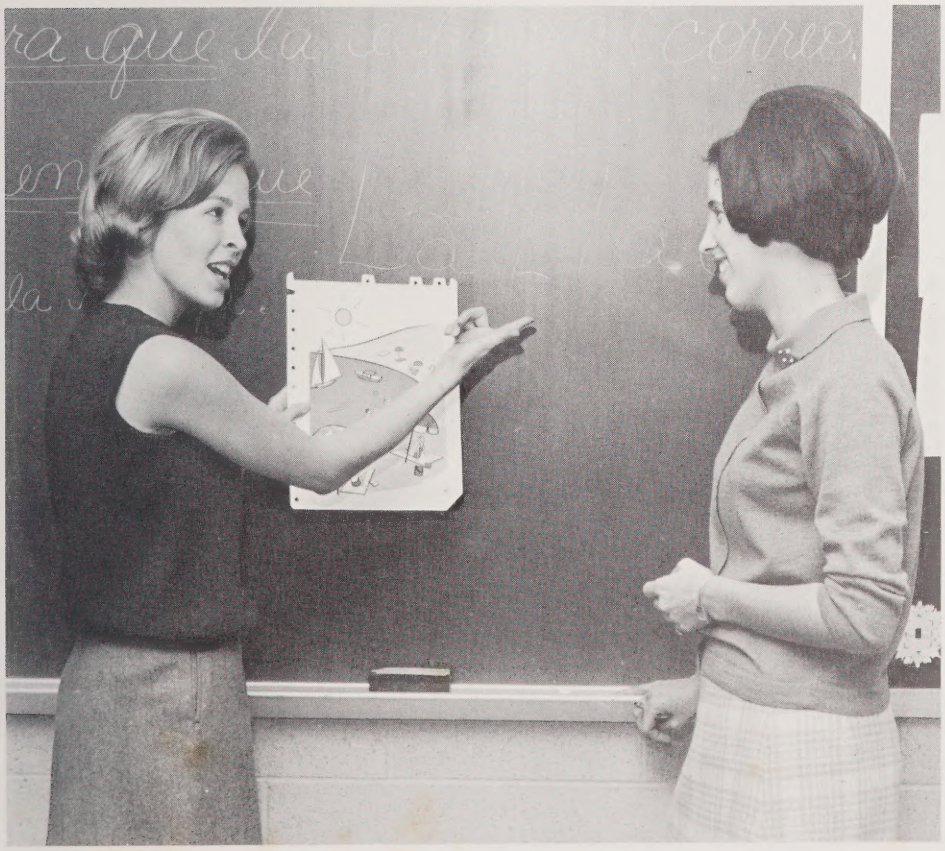
History is the fascinating name of the game for Mr. William Middleton (N.C. State, B.S.), Mr. James Mast (Appalachian, B.S.,M.A.) and Mr. Charles Miller (Lenoir-Rhyne, A.B.). Mr. Middleton teaches social studies and math and has coaching duties with the track and wrestling teams. Mr. Mast teaches U. S. history and is athletic director. Mr. Miller teaches U. S. and European history and government. He also coaches the J. V. football, basketball and baseball teams and sponsors the Pep Club.

History teachers, Mr. Frank Robinson (U. N. C.-C. H., B. A.) and Mrs. Harriet Binkley (Flora MacDonald College, B.A.) review geography in preparing for their classes. In addition to teaching duties, Mrs. Binkley sponsors the Future Teachers of America.

Mrs. Kathryn Lane and Mrs. Sandra Howerton agree that the audio equipment aids their students in the study of French. Mrs. Lane (Wake Forest, B.A.) also teaches English II. Mrs. Howerton (U.N.C.-G.,B.A.) teaches French and English III and serves as junior class sponsor.

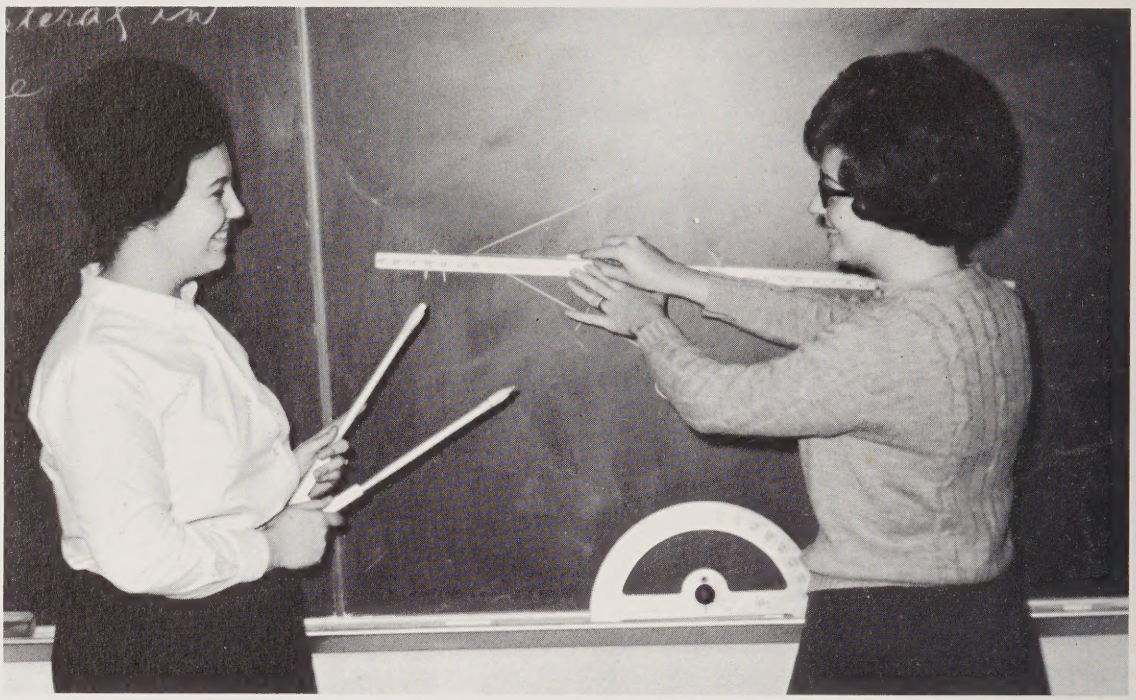
Fine Arts broaden interests

Two of West's new teachers occupy posts in the language department. Mrs. Ann Ferrell (Salem College, B.A.) teaches Spanish. Miss Ann McMaster (Salem College, B.A.) teaches Latin and English.



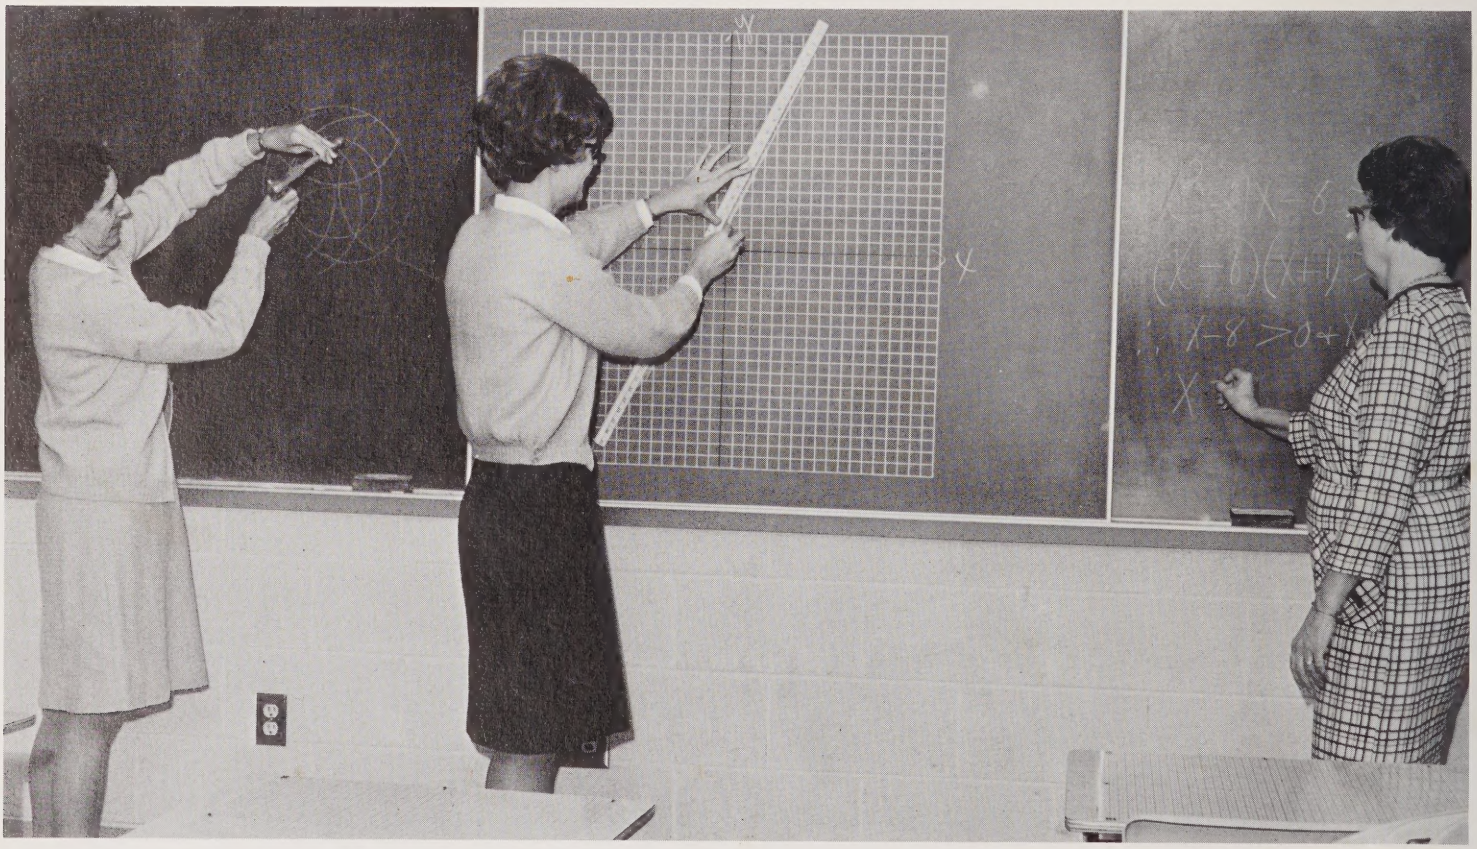
Señor Costellanos points out his hometown of Koachabama, Bolivia, to Mrs. Ferrell's Spanish class.

The world of numbers, formulas and equations

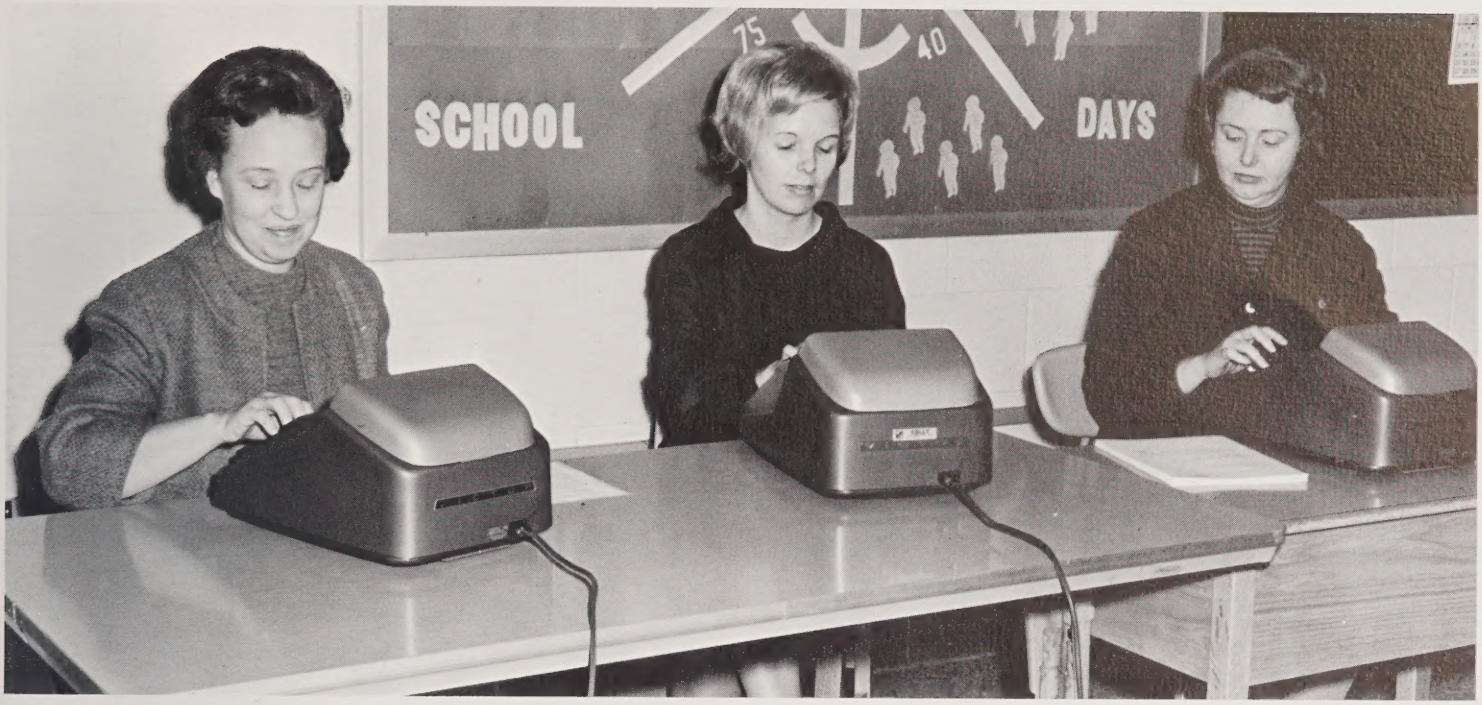


Mrs. Maxine Perdue and Mrs. Frances Scott are two of the teachers who stimulate an interest in math. Mrs. Scott (N.C. State, B.S.) teaches general math and algebra. In addition to teaching geometry, and math, Mrs. Perdue (Salem College, A.B.) teaches dramatics and sponsors all dramatic productions at West.

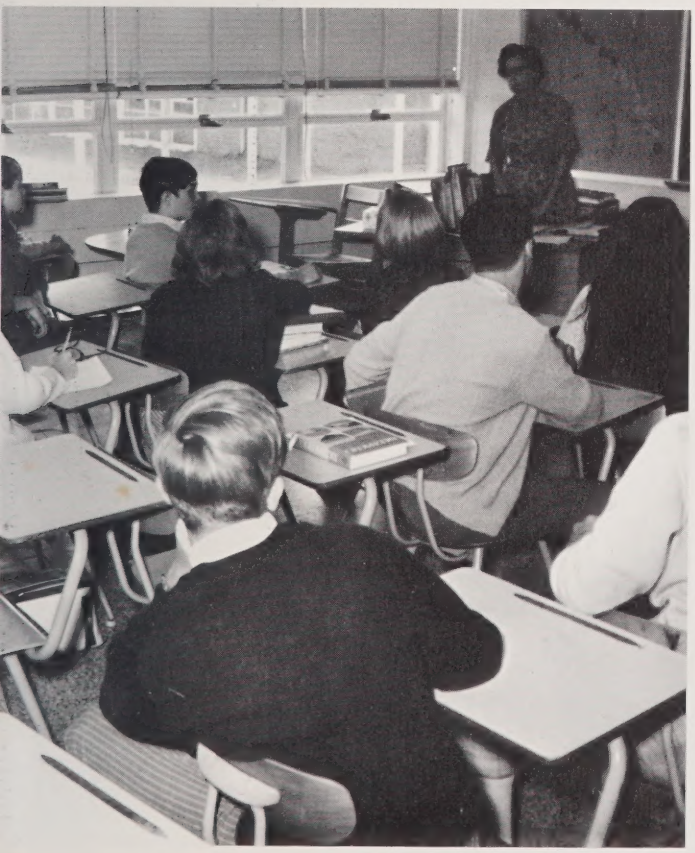
These teachers would find it almost impossible to teach without the aid of a blackboard. Three of West's mathematics teachers are Mrs. Charlotte Inabinet, Miss Mary Currin and Mrs. Bonnie Green. Mrs. Inabinet (Appalachian, B.S.) sponsors the Campus Life Club, Y-Teens and the sophomore class. Miss Currin (Meredith College, A.B.) is the drill team sponsor. Mrs. Green (College of Wooster, B.A.) sponsors the National Honor Society.



Speed, accuracy and co - ordination



Mrs. Iris Bridges, Mrs. Audrey Crater and Mrs. Dorothy Russell demonstrate equipment used in their business classes. Mrs. Bridges (Catawba, A.B.) teaches bookkeeping and typing and sponsors the junior marshals. Mrs. Crater (Appalachian, B.S.) teaches typing and notehand. Mrs. Russell (Appalachian, B.S.) teaches typing and general business.



Student typists struggle to hit the right letters without looking at the keys.

Mrs. Inabinet explains the postulates and the theorems of geometry to a sophomore math class.

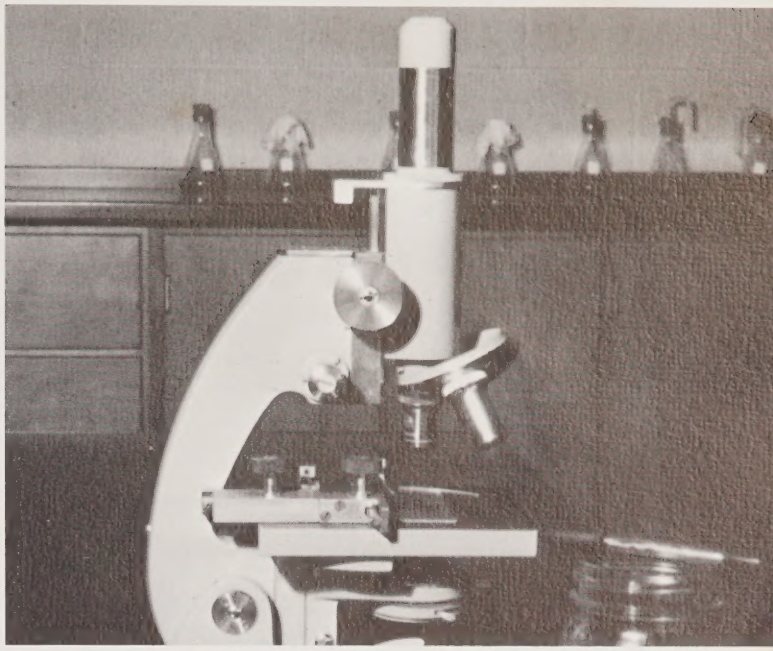
Artistic longings find expression in Art and Home Ec.

One of the objectives of Miss Judith Hoover's classes is to allow students to express themselves. As art teacher at West, Miss Hoover (Appalachian, B.S.) also stresses art appreciation.

Many tasty items appear from the classes of the home economics teachers, Mrs. Elizabeth Greene and Miss Sally Huffman. In addition to teaching home ec., Mrs. Greene (Montreat-Anderson, U.N.C.-G.,B.S.H.E.) and Miss Huffman (U. N. C.- G., B. S. H. E., M. S. H. E.) are cosponsors of the Future Homemakers of America.

Just call me Rembrandt.

A microscope offers a view into the invisible world.



Science arouses curiosity

Three of the teachers in West's science department are Mr. Marcus Allred (Guilford College, A.B.), Mr. Fred Parker (Livingstone, Columbia, B.S.,M.A.) and Mr. Kenneth Harper (Elon College, A.B.). Mr. Allred teaches Advanced Biology and physical education. He is coach for cross-country, basketball and baseball. Mr. Parker teaches chemistry and physics and serves as sponsor for the Junior Engineers Club. Mr. Harper teaches biology and human anatomy and physiology. He is head wrestling coach and backfield football coach.

West's music master is Mr. John Foreman. Mr. Foreman (West Chester State College, Eastman School of Music, B.S., M.M.) teaches all music classes and directs all musical activities and programs at West.

Mr. Foreman directs the stage band at the Christmas concert.

Do - Re - Mi - and 1 - 2 - 3 -

Miss Frances Cook and Mr. Ayden Hall enjoy keeping in shape with a basketball. Miss Cook (Appalachian, B.S.) and Mr. Hall (East Carolina, Campbell, B.S.) teach biology and physical education. After school, Mr. Hall coaches football and assists in coaching the basketball and track teams. Miss Cook coaches the girls' speedball, basketball, volleyball and softball teams and sponsors the Girls' Athletic Association.

What's so funny about taking P.E., Kathy?

Class of '68

Standing in the place of prominence are the Senior Class Officers.
Steve Black, president
Leigh McDowell, secretary
Dianne Boner, treasurer

Before us stands the world
Full of distress, hatred and affliction.
However, here too we stand
Full of assurance, love, and ability.
We shall face the world
And to the world lend a helping hand.
We shall enter with the determination to be successful.
We shall enter with knowledge and desire to learn a little more.
We shall enter to fulfill the dreams and expectations of ourselves and those around us.
We, the Class of 1968, shall enter into the world to do our part
To make the world a better place for all mankind.

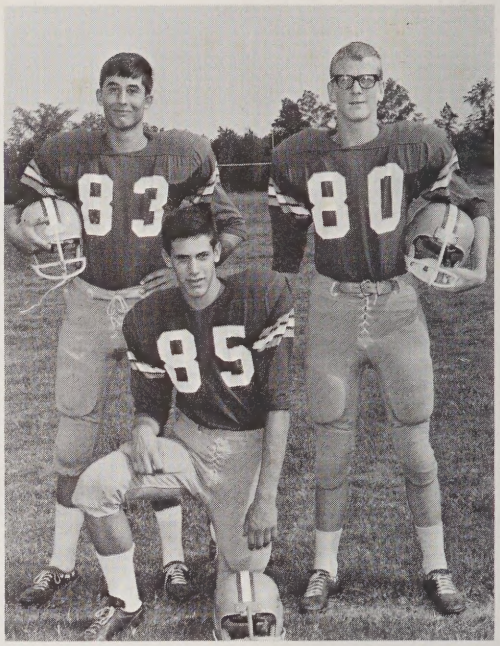
SPIRIT OF '68 IN SPORTS

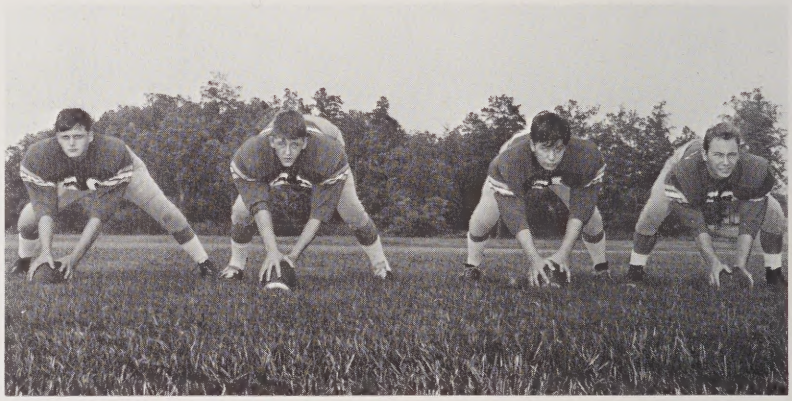
Thirty - nine Titans play football.

Don Jones (kneeling), Ricky Petree, Bobby Spillman and Tommy Smith are the guards that open up the holes for the fast-running West backs.



Snagging passes is the job of these Titan ends: Robert Fulton (kneeling), John Flynt and Davis Webster.

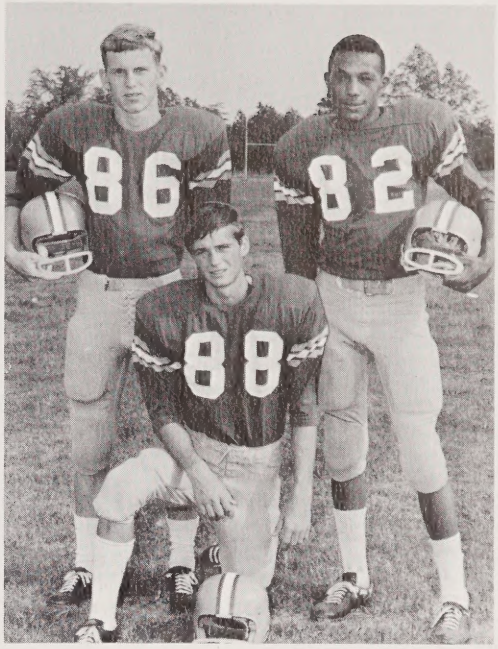
Blocking for the backs and protecting the quarterbacks are the job of the tackles: Charlie Griggs (kneeling), Tom McKay, David Norman and Tommy Bass.



Snapping the ball to the quarterback is the main job of these centers: Richard Robertson, Chris Grubbs, Russ Wilson and Lindsay Miller.

Swift and sturdy are the backs who ground out valuable yardage. Kneeling: David Hawkins, Gene Southern, Steve Jones; Standing: Larry Oliver, John Swajkoski, Mike Zafoot, Jimmy Monson.

David Hawkins (22) returns a kick-off as Danny Atkins (32) throws a block in the bruising game with Reynolds.

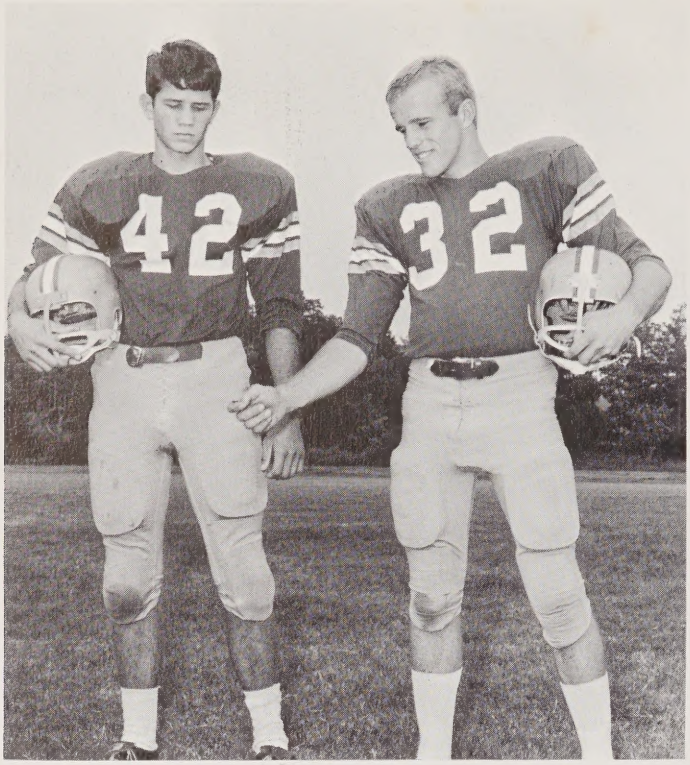


Jack Snow (kneeling), Jimmy Hunt and Roland Douthit are valuable Titan ends.

Sparking the offensive and defensive plays are these Titan backs: kneeling: Steve Carter and David Hepler; standing: Neville Chaney, Vic Swaim, W. H. Hawkins and Danny Atkins.

Guards Jack Stallings (kneeling), Mike Vogler, Ernie Myers and Mike Warden were blockers and linebackers.

Offensive and defensive line play was the task of these tackles: Jeff Seaton (kneeling), Lee Hauser, Wally Bracknell and Billy Sprinkle.



West Co-Captains, Gene Southern and Danny Atkins, ponder a difficult question. Will it be heads or tails?

Titans improve record over '66 year . . .
Good offense . . .
Opportunistic defense . . .
Chaney, Fulton, Atkins, Snow, offensive stars . . .
Griggs, Wilson, Douthit, defensive standouts . . .
Offensive moved ball well against opponents . . .
Chaney directed attack with sharp passes . . .
Coaches Hall and Harper did excellent job in first year . . .
Victory over Mount Tabor set scoring record with 46 points . . .

Will these new plays work? This is the question raised by Coaches Ayden Hall and Kenneth Harper.

Ricky Parrish and Stanley Binkley, managers, check the helmets.
